

Charles River Country Club

Assistant Professional

Charles River Country Club features a classic Donald Ross designed golf course that opened in 1921. Over the years, Charles River has hosted many prestigious amateur events and professional tournaments including the 2003 USGA Men's State Team Championships, 2006 Massachusetts Open, and was host to the stroke play qualifying rounds for the 2013 U.S. Amateur Championship.

1921

Job Description

Charles River is looking for a highly motivated individual looking to further their career in the golf industry. As a member of our golf professional team, the chosen candidate will assist in the daily operations, and will include but not limited to the following responsibilities:

- Provide excellent customer service to our members and guests
- Assist in tournament operations using the Golf Genius software
- Manage the current tee sheet using Clubessential software
- Assist in merchandising, receiving, and controlling inventory
- Proficient in Microsoft excel, word, and publisher

Compensation

The compensation package for the chosen candidate will include:

- $800 - $900 per week+
- 100% of lesson income
- Potential junior clinic income of $7000 - $10,000 for the season
- Club repair commission
- Clothing allowance
- Education and PGA dues allowance

Start Date

April 15th (flexible)

Season End Date

October 15th (flexible)

Assistance provided to secure winter employment.

Resume Deadline

January 31st, 2022

Send resumes to - dtaylor@charlesrivercc.org

Daniel Taylor - Head Golf Professional

