

Frank Dully II PGA was born in Bridgeport, CT and played on two state-winning high school teams at Fairfield Prep. After Prep, he won the Individual New England Division 1 Championship at Holy Cross College, The Connecticut Public Links and was a three-time runner-up at the Francis Ouimet Tournament, losing to two future PGA Tour players Fran Quinn and Pat Bates.

Frank's PGA Professional career began at Baltusrol, learning the business under the tutelage of the legend Bob Ross for two seasons 1990-1991. In 1992, Frank arrived at Kernwood Country Club and became a PGA member in 1993. In over 30 years, Kernwood hosted more events than any other club in New England. Two NEPGA Section Championships, a NEPGA Pro-Lady every year since 2000, a Mass Open, a Mass Amateur, a Junior Amateur, a PNC Qualifier, a US Senior Open Qualifier and many more MGA and USGA events.

Frank's playing career highlights include seven Professional National Championships, a Senior Professional National Championship, two PGA Tour Events, three Sunshine Tour events and multiple mini tour wins. His wins during his career include the 2006 NEPGA Section Championship, NEPGA Individual Match Play Championship in 1997, Pro-Pro Match Play four times, Pro-Pro Stroke Play two times, Pro- Assistant two times, Mass PGA Individual titles two times, Pro-Lady two times, Pro- AM Championship, Pro-Junior, Senior- Junior two times, AHEAD Stroke Play Series Championship, and a Head Pro Championship. His most recent victory and most prized is the First Parent/Child Championship victory with his son Sean. Finally, four runner-up finishes in the Section Championship, a runner-up in the Mass Open, New Hampshire Open and New England Open.

Frank has served as a past tournament chairman for the Massachusetts PGA Chapter and multiple years on the NEPGA Tournament Committee. His awards include two Massachusetts Chapter PGA Golf Professional of the Year, one Massachusetts Chapter PGA Merchandiser of the Year, and the 2006 Skip Wogan Award Winner of the NEPGA. While working at Kernwood for over 30 years, the Head Professional has been a crusader on the TaylorMade National Advisory Staff for over 25 years.

In closing, the pillars of his career at Kernwood have been centered around family, dedication, and loyalty. His commitment to these pillars for over 30 years has pervaded his career at Kernwood Country Club, where he raised his family with wife Jennifer, retained three outstanding Assistant Professionals, Steve Bramlett PGA, Keith Bursey and Craig Pitman, for over 25 years, and served four generations of membership that felt like family.
