

Bob Crowley
NEW ENGLAND
PROFESSIONAL GOLFERS' ASSOCIATION
HALL OF FAME
1996

Bob Crowley won five NEPGA Championships, four Massachusetts Opens, numerous other State Open events, five Skip Wogan/Player of the Year Awards and two NEPGA Senior Championships. He was the head professional at Pine Brook Country Club in Weston, Mass. for thirty years (1961-1991), where he remains pro emeritus. For many years, Crowley wintered in Palm Springs, California as teaching professional at the renowned Thunderbird Country Club. In 1984, he was named as the New England Section's Golf Professional of the Year.