

Writing the Code: Telling Our Stories

Writing the Code explores topics that interest and impact URM students and alumni as they navigate their career journeys and workplaces. The series amplifies and uplifts the career stories, experiences, and testimonies of Sloanes who identify as a member of a historically marginalized community.

Networking & the Game of Golf

Sunday, September 11, 2022 | 2-6pm
Robert T. Lynch Municipal Golf Course

Golf has a language of its own, and in some industries it's a common networking tool. This session is an opportunity to explore the intersection between business and the game of golf, examine country club culture, and learn how to navigate the game.

Golf Instruction • DEI Programming • Panel Discussions •
Networking • Food & Beverages

Sign up in SloanGroups.
Space is limited!

POWERED BY:

MIT
MANAGEMENT
OFFICE OF DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION

PGA
REACH
NEW ENGLAND

MIT
MANAGEMENT
CAREER DEVELOPMENT OFFICE

Stay tuned for future events exploring the workplace experiences of URM students and alumni, and strategies for evaluating employer values and DEI commitments.